CORRESPONDENCE.

Hopper.

Our farmers are very busy now finishing their corn crops and saving hay.

Providence was very favorable on our neighbor, Wiley Hammons, since the great amount of hay he had on the ground Sunday, did not get wet.

F. F. Rowland is teaching school at Hopper. He has been our old teacher for many years. We are glad to have him back with us.

Taylor Hignite is now sick. He has been a little ill for some time.

Our friend, Mrs. Riley, is still sick. We hope she will soon recover.

Old man George Lane is teaching school on Disappointment.

The people who attended church at Girdler Sunday were very glad to meet with our friend, M. G. Hignite. He was there to visit his old friends and school mates, and was accompanied by his wife and baby. We were glad to have them with us. We gave him 197 votes out of 220 in his other race. This time we have 300 Republican votes, and we expect to give him at least 275. We think twenty-five is enough to send to other precincts. M. O. G.

Brush Creek.

The Brush creek teachers compliment themselves on being so fortunate in locating in such a good neighborhood.

The schools of Brush creek have all started up in fair condition.

Our baseball nine met and organized on last Saturday. They had a splendid game for beginners.

S. L. Lewis is having his lumber hauled to Artemus.

Several of our people are attending court this week in Barbourville.

The people of Brush creek seem to be very much interested in the re-election of Supt. Hignite. The sentiment seems to be almost uniform in his favor. REPUBLICAN CITIZEN.

Lunsford.

This section of the country was blessed with a nice rain last Saturday.

Wm. Crofford and J. H. Bays have gone to Coalport to work in the mines.

W. H. Davis, of Artemus, was at this place on business last week.

J. W. Alford, of Poplar creek, is visiting his father, "Uncle" John Alford, of this place.

N. Lunsford was in Barbourville on business last week.

Joe Detheridge and family of Swan Pond, are visiting W. H. Detheridge at this place.

E. B. Hemphill, the teacher at this place, seems to have quite an attraction on Little Brush creek at present.

N. Lunsford, our worthy postmaster, says he thinks he will get his corn laid by in time to save fodder.

Hon. John M. Tinsley, of Barbourville, made a speech at this place in the interest of D. C. Edwards.

Quite a crowd from this place attended the funeral of Uncle John Baird on Little Brush last Sunday.

Hurrah! for Buchanan for our next jailer. BLUE BUCK.

Artemus.

The farmers have completed their crops.

Our meadows are being converted into hay on every side.

Our coal mines are running and doing well.

Mrs. G. C. Hollifield is visiting relatives in Middlesboro this week, while her husband keeps bachelor's hall. We are sorry for Gus.

The series of meetings conducted by Revs. Tye, Baird and Robertson has just closed. Much good has been accomplished and several additions to the church-house resulted from the meetings. Besides the church and neighborhood has undergone a general revival.

James Henson, member of the firm of "W. H. Davis & Co.," who has been at his home in Whitley county for the past two weeks, has returned.

George Corum, who has been in Kansas City for the past six months, has just returned to his home at this place.

Our young doctor, J. L. Corum, has had considerable practice since he came home from school.

Messrs. J. M. Tinsley and John G. Matthews were in our town the other day in behalf of D. C. Edwards for Congress, whose prospects are very fair to get most of the votes in this section.

Supt. Hignite was here a few days ago in the interest of his candidacy. He found the sentiment of the people strongly in his favor. Artemus will no doubt do its full part toward his re-election. D. H.
